After acknowledging from the bridge the greetings that were given him by the ship's crew, he turned to the pile of letters and telegrams awaiting him and spent several hours working with his stenographers. In the afternoon on the advice of his physician, Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, he lay down and rested for a time because of a slight cold that was affecting his voice.

Later, the president received calls from officials on board, including the Italian and French ambassadors. Following this he took a walk on deck together with Mrs. Wilson.

The presidential party dined quietly in the evening, being served by a waiter who claimed to have attended Emperor William and the Empress in the same suite on the trial trip of the George Washington.

The reports that the presidential suite had been fitted up in a luxurious manner are untrue. In the dining hall music was furnished by the ship's band and a quartet of sailors.

OPPOSES BOYCOTT OF FOE; NEEDS RAW MATERIALS

If Germany Is to Pay Indemnity She Must Maintain Industries

SPEAKER TELLS BUSINESS MEN ACT IS UNNECESSARY

Acceptance of Peace Terms Removes Reason For Denying Supplies

Atlantic City, N. J., Dec. 5.—Possibility of perpetuating in the domain of commerce the hatred and bitterness engendered by the war will be greatly lessened if the United States refuses to be drawn into any agreement or understanding that would make her a party to a boycott of the commerce of any of the nations that have been arrayed against each other, was a declaration contained in an address prepared by James A. Farrell, of New York, and read in his absence, to the construction congress here today.

"It is certain," he said, "that if Germany is to be compelled, as she ought to be, to repay the wanton destruction she has wrought in Belgium, northern France, Poland and Serbia, she must have access to the raw materials of manufacture by conversion of which into finished products she may earn the money necessary to pay her debts."

"As a matter of fact, given the frank acceptance by Germany of the terms of peace which will be dictated by the allies, there can be no reason for separating her economic wants from those of the rest of Europe. These will be sufficiently imperative to use up all the surplus foodstuffs and raw materials that can be spared for many months to come."

"An industrial creed for 'the four parties of industry'—capital, management, labor and the community—was outlined by John D. Rockefeller, Jr., in an address today before the emergency and construction conference in session here.

Asserting that capital and labor are partners with common interest and not enemies, Mr. Rockefeller stated ten tenets of his industrial creed. These included advancement by industry of social as well as material well being of employees; opportunity for employees to earn a living under conditions of fair wages, reasonable hours and proper industrial environment. Reward for initiative and efficiency; machinery for uncovering and promptly adjusting grievances; adequate representation of all the industrial parties with annual joint conferences to insure industrial harmony and prosperity in each plant with this system extended to include all plants in the same industry, all industries in a community in a nation, and in the various nations."

BRITISH NOT TO DEMAND RETURN OF HELIGOLAND

Naval Authorities Decide Such Action Will Not Be Necessary

WILL NOT ALLOW PEACE MEET TO CURTAIL NAVY

Churchill Declares Empire Will Insist on Maintaining Supremacy

London, Wednesday, Dec. 4.—The British naval authorities have decided that it will be unnecessary to demand the return of Heligoland to Great Britain from Germany, Winston Spencer Churchill, the minister of munitions, announced in a speech at Dundee tonight.

Mr. Churchill also said the government had decided upon the nationalization of the railways.

"We entered the peace conference," said Mr. Churchill, "during the course of his address, with the absolute determination that no limitation shall be imposed on our right to maintain our naval defense. We do not intend, no matter what arguments and appeals are addressed to us, to lend ourselves in any way to any fettering restrictions which will prevent the British navy maintaining its well tried and well deserved supremacy."

The island of Heligoland, formerly Danish, was ceded to Great Britain in 1914. In 1920 Great Britain ceded it to Germany, who, however, developing it into an extremely important naval base. It lies in the North sea off the mouths of the Elbe and Weser and on the entrance to the Kiel canal which it dominates.

The island was a German naval stronghold throughout the great war. Its occupation by the allies was under consideration shortly after the signing of the armistice when the German naval revolution made it appear doubtful if Germany could comply with the naval terms of the armistice. These however seem since to have been fulfilled nearly in their entirety.

PRIVATE STOPS GERMAN CHARGE

BERLIN POLITICS EXTREMELY HAZY

Quarrels Arise in Every Faction Dispatch Says— Two Dangers Threaten Nation.

London, Dec. 5.—(British Wireless Service, Germany)—The political situation in Germany continues to be extraordinarily hazy, says the Amsterdam correspondent of the Daily Express. Everybody seems to be quarreling with everybody else, and every member of the Social party is trying to outdo his comrade in the fervor of his republicanism.

Two grave dangers, the correspondent declares, appear to be confronting the new German republic. One is the separatist movement, headed by Kurt Eisner, the Bavarian leader, who is urging secession against the leadership of Berlin and appears to be willing to create a south German republic, including Bavaria, Württemberg, Saxony, and several other states. The other danger which the correspondent adds is equally pressing, is that arising from the quarrel between the Berlin military soviet with its majority of extremists and Bolsheviks and the Berlin executive committee.

The whole situation indeed is chaotic, the correspondent continues, and of this chaos the extremists naturally are making capital. The republican government is not even able to settle the question of summoning the German electorate for the elections to the national assembly. It is announced that the election will take place February 16 and it will extend to the whole German territory as it existed August 1, 1914, which is farcical as no nomination to the reichstag ever can take place in Alsace-Lorraine.

"On the other hand the government urges the allies to bring about a preliminary peace sometime in January and before Germany has a real responsible government. The whole German political situation is characterized by similar contradictions. The Germans want the allies to treat them as an orderly government while they give every sign of an early shipwreck in anarchy."

He returned to the White farm where the machines have been under guard and shortly afterwards Lieutenant Harmon in a big bombing machine flew over the business district the ship being only a couple of hundred feet in the air indeed it seemed to almost touch the top of the court house flagstaff. The pilot had engine trouble and descended just off Valandigham street in South Newark.

FORMER NEWARK BOY BUILDS PLAY HOUSE

In a full page feature story showing how the war has influenced the games played by young Americans, the Detroit Sun-Nova prints a picture of a "war hut" built by Darlton Simpson, son of James S. Simpson, 465 Twenty-Fifth street, Detroit, formerly of Newark. The News says:

"Darlton Simpson, 465 Twenty-Fifth street, has fixed up a packed in his back yard which is a rendezvous for all the boys nearby. Inside and out it is plastered with appeals to buy Liberty Bonds. On the outside the roof is wired with an electric signalling system which supplements the Boy Scout code employed by the youngsters. On the inside there are an electric motor and all manner of chemical apparatus, for the whole-scale use of chemicals in this war has led even the youth to experimenting with the ways to use the elements against the Hun."

"The boys who congregate in the Simpson backyard have formed themselves into a machine gun squad and they are not content with one branch of the army, join a cavalry troop in which wooden horses are the means of progress to a daily besieged city of Berlin. To lend still more variety to the target—23 mile of the Kaiser's head—set up, and the slogan 'Whack the Kaiser' is supposed to steady the hand and improve the skill. Knives and hatchets are hurled at Wilhelm's substitute and if the emperor himself, instead of a counterfeit had been there, the present head of the house of Hohenzollern would long ago have been consigned to his six feet of earth."

Young Simpson was formerly an Advocate carrier.

...and at big R.R. stations
in New York, Chicago, etc., etc.

A fact:

From railway news stands sales reports received by us last month, the following extracts are printed as evidence that—with a large part of the traveling public, at least—the preference for Fatima is equally strong, East and West:

NEW YORK—Pennsylvania Terminal: "Fatima remains by far biggest seller"
NEW YORK—Grand Central Station: "Fatima outsells any other brand"
CHICAGO—Park Row Station: "Fatima is the leading seller"
CHICAGO—Union Station: "Fatima leads all other high-class brands in sales"
CHICAGO—La Salle St. Depot: "Fatima is best seller among the better brands"
PHILADELPHIA—Broad St. Station: "Fatima is second best seller"
ATLANTIC CITY—Reading Station: "Fatima is biggest-selling cigarette"
ATLANTIC CITY—Penn. Station: "Fatima is best seller"
CINCINNATI—Grand Central, Penn., D. & O. Depots: "Fatima outsells all other brands"
DETROIT—Union Depot: "Fatima still leads all other brands in sales"
DETROIT—Michigan Central R. R. Station: "Fatima sales are highest"
Trains of N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R. System: "More Fatimas are sold than other cigarette"
BUFFALO—N. Y. Central Station: "Fatima is largest-selling cigarette"

The fact is that, besides pleasing the taste, Fatimas leave a man feeling clear and keen-minded, while and after smoking.

Y. M. C. A. MAN WRITES OF KUSTER BROTHERS

Mrs. J. S. Kuster of Commodore street had received word concerning her sons Karl and John, who are with the 37th Division in Belgium. The letter was written by Thomas L. Emile of Easton, Pa., who is known as "Uncle Tom" to the soldiers of France, and who spent 7 months with the men on the battle lines. In his letter he says: "I have just returned from France, and I met your sons Karl and John and had a long talk with them. They were in the best of health and in fine spirits. They had just come out of the big battle of Verdun, and they did very good work and were as well as you, very proud of them. I have left them had woolen underwear and socks issued them."

PLAINE OFFICIALLY LISTED AS DEAD

Navy Department Notifies Parents That No Trace of Him Has Been Found Since Ship Sinks.

Joseph W. Plaine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Plaine, 261 East Main street, has been officially listed as dead by the navy department according to a letter received this morning by Mr. Plaine from the department, dated Dec. 3.

The letter says: "Joseph Wellington Plaine, common signman, first class, the record have been closed as dead Feb. 11, 1918. He has been missing since the sinking of the steamship Meriton 100 miles to the east of the coast of Africa. No further information has been received, the department reluctantly compelled to declare that your son lost his life in this disaster."

The navy department is not necessary to demonstrate that Americans are a close-knit people.

TWO IN FAMILY HAVE ACCIDENTS

Two of the members of the family of A. P. Teuscher of Columbia street are recovering from recent severe accident. Virginia, the five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Teuscher was seriously scalded on the right side, when a kettle of water overturned on her several days ago, but her condition is now improving. Mr. Teuscher had a serious cut inflicted on his hand, when a piece of granite severed the palm.

"Don't curb a sick horse," said the veterinarian. "No, it's better to curb a well," replied the stone mason.

SOCIALISM.

It was remarked at a socialist convention a few days ago, that our government did not dare send its soldiers to Russia, for fear they would be converted to socialism.

As usual our soap box brethren are seeing things upside down. If we wanted to convince those soldiers what a fool proposition socialism is, the way to do it would be to send a personally conducted expedition to Russia. Let them see how it works when the dreamers came out of the rainbows and butt up against the facts of actual life. Butter $12 a pound and all that.

The Socialists have been writing, arguing, holding soap box meetings all over this continent for 20 years. What have they got as the result of this interminable campaign of yap? Only one Congressman.

Socialism will always get a certain number of adherents among certain theorists and certain classes of immigrants who do not understand the principles of a democratic country. It makes a little progress with native born Americans, who see clearly that competition and individual initiatives, which socialism would destroy, have been the great factors in human advance.

The Socialistic propaganda has never made good in practical life. It demonstrated its impracticability by its strong tendency to sympathize with Germany in the war. Though Socialism is supposed to stand for the larger opportunity and greater freedom for the working masses, yet it was very friendly to autocratic, tyrannical Germany.

Russian leaders of Socialism came to set free their country from the "tyranny of capitalism," carrying in their inside pockets the funds that the German tyrants had advanced to these willing tools. The American workingman and soldier will not be caught by such decoys.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Marion Star, Senator Harding's newspaper, appears to be all "het up" over the announcement that the government has taken control of the cable service. The Star thinks it means censorship of facts that the American people should know. The Washington authorities have given good reason for this governmental action and at the same time have given assurance that there will be no restriction upon news reports of the peace conference.

IT PUTS THE "PEP"

Into Pepiron—The Combination of Pepsin, Nux, Iron, Celery.

This is what makes Pepiron of won derful therapeutic value, and so successful after indigestion, the grip and in flamed nerve troubles, anemia, paleness, nervous weakness and the exhausting worry and anxiety over the world war. It is a real iron and nerve tonic, especially beneficial in the weak ness following the influenza and grip, to worn-out, brain-fagged men, delicate women, school-bred girls and to fast-growing boys. It builds up and con valescents, the aged and infirm. It actually puts iron, a potent strengthening, into the blood, and restores the wasted red corpuscles. Your druggist knows its great merit.

THE SOLDIER'S JOB.

It will not be long before the soldiers will be flocking back to the home towns in great numbers. Then some embarrassing questions will come up as to whether they get the old job back again.

It will be particularly difficult when a woman has taken a place. The soldier life under the fine conditions of our army tends to develop chivalry. It will come hard to the fellow who has been living in that atmosphere to return and find some nice girl who does really need the money.

Yet justice will require in almost every case, that the soldier get his old job back. It is a poor return, after a man has placed his life and health and future at the command of the government, after he risks all that is dear to him in the world, if his means of making a living are taken away, and he is thrown out to learn some new business or make his way among strangers.

Most of the women who have taken these places will see the situation, and will emphatically refuse to keep on in their positions when they know the soldier is ready to come back.

Employers will, generally be pretty glad to get them. It was at first thought that they would make a good many objections. Some people said the soldier would have got out of the current of business life, that he would be received back only reluctantly.

But these men have had a splendid experience. They have learned discipline. Military drill has taught them to think quickly. They have had out door life that has filled them with physical energy. They will take hold of the job more alert mentally, and ready to do things and make up for lost time. The business world will welcome them back.

Now comes the rumor that the Czar wasn't executed after all. It's merely a rumor without apparent foundation, but nevertheless reminds one of the repeated reports of the death of Villa, who is still in the land of the living according to most recent advices.

Only sixteen more shopping days before Christmas. Why put off buying until the last day in the afternoon?

PRESIDENT ASROAD.

(By Prof. W. H. Johnson.)

The president is breaking no precedent whatever in attending the peace conference, since nothing corresponding to this conference has ever before taken place in which the United States was a party, and hence no precedent exists, either one way or the other. Our precedent experts should remember that the precedent theory applies only when circumstances are the same in essential points.

Of the great countries directly involved in this conference, the United States is the only one that is not bodily close to the spot. For that reason alone, if there were no other, the responsible head of our government should be there to take personal part in the discussions, just as the responsible heads of all the other powers concerned will be there. The man who demands that he shall stay at home simply is demanding that the influence of the United States in the final settlement shall be heavily impaired.

But there is still another reason. It generally is agreed over there, and by the vast majority who are not unthinkingly partisan here at home, that President Wilson has succeeded better than any other man living in grasping and formulating the deeper meanings and feelings of all the things concerning the crisis to be attained as the outcome of this war. His presence will count heavily for essential harmony in the deliberations, for keeping the great essentials to the front and avoiding the possible danger of embarrassing entanglement over matters that belong to the moment rather than to the abiding interests of peace and progress. His decision to go is in the highest sense a patriotic performance of the duty assigned to him by the constitution, a conscientious obedience to his oath of office. Among the hundreds of thousands of American young men who have gone over there and helped so nobly to prepare the way for this great conference, we may be very sure that there will not be one whose heart will not swell with pride at the thought that the president of his country is to be present.

FILE CLAIM AGAINST GER-MANY.

(Pittsburgh-Cazette Times.)

A hint of the sweeping character of the claims for reparations which Germany will have to meet is given by Secretary Lansing in a circular calling upon American citizens for information regarding losses caused by Hun U-boat warfare. The State Department wants detailed reports of damage to property sustained at any time during the war, that is, since August 1, 1914, and regardless of whether the property at loss was carried in American or foreign bottoms. The data is to be submitted within 30 days from Sunday. As most of it probably is already prepared, there should be a veritable avalanche of claims streaming down on the Department within a day or two, and shortly after New Year's we should have a tabulation of what Germany owes the United States on this account alone. It will make a higher sum of money, but hardly "a drop in the bucket" compared with the amounts which will be claimed by Great Britain, France, and the northern neutral countries.

One thing which the legitimizing of these claims will do will be to outlive for all future time such warfare as the Germans undertook with a view to bringing England to her knees through starvation. Further, in settling the claims a way may be found doubly to punish the ruthless Huns through the imposition of just economic penalties. It is now decided that as a preliminary Germany should reimburse the merchant craft she sank, ten for ten, out of any ships which she may still possess, and then devote all her ship building capacity to replacing the remainder with new ships before she were permitted to operate any for her own commerce, she would be out of the world's markets for a long time. Thus there would be suppressed a lesson more salutary than any proceeding from the mere assessment of money damages.

THE ADVOCATE'S TRAVELLING DOT.

When ancient opinions and rules of life are taken away, the loss cannot possibly be estimated. From that moment we have no compass to govern us; nor can we know distinctly to what port to steer. Burke.

Dear Me—
I've started my furnace and now as for me,
It's likely that I shall go broke;
For all my hard earnings, I painfully see,
Will rapidly go up in smoke.

Sour Grapes.

Avant Celine says—Nervy Gyrle has been a-settin' her cap for Spon Dootals ter a good many year, but t'other day he up an' ast Dulcy Myrrh to be his'n an' she done so, leastways she said she would soon's she could git up to Mr. Schiff's an' git her a stylish dress to be married in. Dulcy was a-talkin' at the Sewin' Club about Spon an' she says, "I think they's no dumber but what I'll be happy." Spon an' me un- ners'n's each other thorough," she says. "He's told me all his past," says she "an' every mean thing he ever done," she says. "He must have a little good mem'ry," says Nervy, some cold an' hotty.

The Travelling Dot has been asked if it is true that there are eight verbs in our language—eight selfish and haughty verbs—that simply will not associate with adverbs. We are loath to believe that any such hostile relations exist between the component parts of the English language, but it has been some years since we studied grammar and we do not know what animosities may have developed in the meantime. So if there are any readers of the Travelling Dot who are well enough acquainted with verbs to call them by their just names and who are sufficiently familiar with their habits to know whether or not any of them refuse to tolerate the society of adverbs, we should be glad to have our minds set at rest upon this subject. Superintendent Barnes probably associates with verbs every day on more or less familiar terms and is doubtless qualified to speak with authority. Is Superintendent Barnes in the house?

Speaking of Titles.

The King of Beakum is a gent Who's every inch a king. Who's not remain his "President"— Or some such nobler thing?— Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Well, we for Albert surely fall For he's an honest guy, sir. So name him President or call him anything but Kaiser.

It Would Be Just Like Us.

Peace has such a mellowing effect that though we do not know for sure that Dr. Garfield was a dollar-a-year man we feel now like giving him the dollar anyhow and telling him to keep the change.—Grand Rapids Press.

But we suppose as cold weather comes, and begin to shiver a little, old human nature will assert itself again and we'll probably want to take away even that which he hath.

Trouble.

Do not go hunting trouble, bo. Sit down and sing a song. And you will find, first thing you know, Your share will come along.

—Luke McLuke.

Do You Know.

That exact, in chronology, is the excess of the solar month or year above the lunar synodical month or lunar year? For a month of 31 days, this is exact in 1 day, 11 hours, 15 minutes, and 57 seconds. If we suppose the new moon to occur on the first day of the month, as the Julian solar year is nearly 365 days and the Julian lunar year is nearly 354 days, the annual exact is nearly 11 days.

When the Light Goes Out.

Say, have any of you fellows who own great big auto cars Ever started out in "Lizzie" for a Park.

THE CITIZENSHIP THAT RE-TURNS.

(Ohio State Journal.)

"Keep the home fires burning," says the war song, and they have been kept burning, and the homes have been kept bright and warm for the boys when they step on the porch to return once more to the freedom of peace. Before the burning grates and stoves they are now to tell the stories of their experiences, and the universal wish is to "go on and tell us more." And there will always be more to tell, for the story can hardly be ended in a lifetime. And out into the old life of the home the boys will go onto the farm and into the shop, and wherever he goes he will carry with him the lessons of the sacrifices he has made, which will all blossom into a citizenship sanctified by the privations and self-denials he has endured. The greatest thought, connected with the boys' coming home is the splendid citizenship they have brought back with them.

Pointed Observations

Understandably the armistice will have to be revealed on December 17 to permit the foe an extension of time to comply with the terms; but this time there will be no sirens, no paper buzzards and no pandemonium let loose.—New York Sun.

Large quantities of food were found stored in the imperial palace in Peking. Possibly Wilhelm was inspired by a brilliant idea. He may be going back to Germany to start a restaurant.—Kansas City Journal.

For this nation to join in a world-wide movement to put an end to organized murder and robbery could hardly be considered an "antagonizing alliance."—Richmond Herald.

Republics are being declared in Germany as fast as in Mexico by a Mexican general—and they are about as sincere.—Washington Post.

And when you're forty miles from home, on a cloudy, moonless night Had your lights kick out and leave you—in the dark?

Oh, it's great, I tell you fellows, and I simply can't describe That feelin', as it thru your system crawls. One minute you have lights galore and all the world is bright. Then suddenly around you darkness falls.

You stop—there's nothing else to do—you fumble for a match. You find your match box empty, though, instead. You scramble out and stub your toe; you mutter "neath your breath, But that is not enough—you bump your head.

Your ten cent cash you value now more than do you your life; You wind you. Lizzie up and climb back in. You start off at a snail's pace and you creep along a while. You're unhappier than you have ever been.

But, sweet relief! Here comes a car. Now surely fate is kind! They promise they will light you safely home. They start off and you tag along. How bright their tail light is! You're happy from your feet clear to your dome.

Then suddenly you try to climb a hill you cannot see. Your engine dies—Liz starts to skid—down. "The Dam is Bust!", you madly shout; your passengers pile out. And so do you. You wish you were in town.

But, listen, fellows, all this time your noble rescue-steam Newarward and fails to look behind. He's miles and miles ahead of you and doesn't know you're lost. Nor does he care. Life is an awful game.

How dark the road! How wild the wind! How ink black the sky! Yet nothing can be blacker than your thoughts. If you had that guy who ran away and left you there to die. You'd fill his bloomin' tires chuck full of shots.

Nobol comes along to help and so it's up to you. You try to gather up your scattered brain.

You haul off with a vengeance and you kick Liz in the slats. Then painfully you wind her up again.

You start, you stop, you jump along like a rabbit on a road. You two-step, tango, waltz, Virginia reel. You zig-zag first from right to left; you try to loop the loop. You spin around upon one rubber heel.

Your victims in the tonneau strive to smother anxious groans. But their hair is slowly rising up on end. For the road, that looked so straight to you a breath or so ago. You find, also, that life, was quite a bend.

Oh, Red Cross officers over there in Flanders field, Or wherever 'tis you flapper minus light. I take my hat off to you, but you're welcome to your job. I had enough of it in one short night.

Five years, or weeks, or maybe hours, you thusly founder on. Your beautiful nut-brown hair has turned to grey. You make a vow that if you should go slithering again 'Tis safe to bet 'twill only be by day.

I've had a lot of trouble with my Lizzie in my time. Her little engine has it in for me. She's had six accidents in an hour, she's smashed the stable door. And she's climbed up many a pretty little tree.

Oh, she is very versatile, full many a stunt she's pulled. But this is quite the worst she's ever done.

If I didn't know for sure that she was bled up there in the dark, I'd swear my capitious Lizzie was a Han.

Airplanes in Peace Time.
It is suggested that the United States war department turn over at once 500 airplanes to be used in the establishment of air mail routes. The common-sense kind of common sense would dictate that these airplanes in the American expeditionary force who, on returning to the United States, would like to be employed in a vocation which they have mastered, should be given employment. Never, perhaps, will the postoffice department have a better opportunity of inaugurating air mail routes, and the opportunity should not be missed through negligence, official obstruction, or red tape. The United States will be greatly disappointed if the returning flyers do not introduce flying on an extensive scale, not only for government and commercial, but for private pleasure service.—Christian Science Monitor.

The Peace Treaty.
It may be found that Mr. Wilson by going abroad to sit at the peace conference and announce the purpose of the United States, to outline its subscription to agreements, does not forfeit the action of the senate as a ratifying body. He does. It would be foolish to suppose that if Mr. Wilson with all the advantages at his disposal in Europe, was the moral support of the country, whether that moral support is given intelligently or not, that the senate, sitting in Washington, with little more knowledge of the situations and the problems than any reader of a newspaper could obtain, will be able to set up its judgment against the president's determinations. Mr. Wilson will act independently of the senate and may act defiantly of it. The senate might as well go to bed.—Chicago Tribune.

RENEWED TESTIMONY

No one in Newark who suffers back-ache, headache or distressing urinary ills can afford to ignore this Newark woman's twice-told story. It is confirmed testimony that no Newark resident can doubt.

Mrs. Chas. Korseborn, 123 Fleck Ave., says: "I had terrific pains in the small of my back. At times I was so dizzy I could hardly stand up without putting my hand to the wall to steady myself. The way my kidneys were acting was giving me a lot of distress. One of my relatives had used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results and advised me to try them. I bought a box at R. W. Smith's Drug Store and had relief from the start. By the time I had taken one box, I felt like a new person and was over the kidney trouble. I can now do my household work as well as I ever did." (Statement given September 15, 1914.)

On February 7, 1917, Mrs. Korseborn said: "All I said in my former statement in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills I confirm today. The cure Doan's made has been permanent."

SAILORS IN SCHOOL ARE KEPT AT WORK

Sailors in school at Hampton Roads, Va., are busy every hour up until 4:30 and are taught rowing, rope tying, etc., the same as if they were at sea. Frank Braud in school at the U. S. naval operating base at Hampton wrote the following summary of the work to his sister, Mrs. G. E. Patton of near Reform.

This is Sunday afternoon and have not got much to do. I went to church this morning. I am going to start to school in the morning, but the first thing I will have to do is go out on the water.

FRANK BRAUD.

Under and go through the morning exercise, then when I get through that I will be in school till eleven o'clock, then we are off forchow till 1 o'clock, then I will be in school till 3:30 and then we come out and drill for an hour, and then we are off till next day, that is if we don't have to go on guard. It was my turn to go to the gallery last week and I just got out of there this morning at 7 o'clock when a fellow is there he goes to work at 5:30 in the morning and is there till 7 that evening, but I only have to go there once a month and that I won't be back there for quite a while.

Here, where I am known I get liberty four times a week, but there is not much at Norfolk for me.

They have four or five shows a week here on the base for us to go to and they have some pretty good ones. The company, I was in have all gone to sea, and I would have been with them if I had not joined this course, but I will be better off for when I leave here I will be a first class seaman and it will take them about a year to rate that on board a ship. They teach us here in this school how to row a boat and what to do if one should happen to get lost at sea, and there are twenty kind of things and I have to learn to do all of them.

The Quick Way to Stop a Cough

This home-made syrup does the work in a hurry. Easily prepared, and costs about 2c.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough, is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant, too—children like it—and it is pure and good.

Pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Thus you make a full pint—a family supply—but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup.

And as a cough medicine, there is really nothing better to be had at any price. It goes right to the spot and gives quick, lasting relief. It promptly stops the inflamed membrane that lines the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma. Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, famous for its healing effect on the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

AMUSEMENTS

AUDITORIUM

Theda Bara in "Salome." Theda Bara in a production of "Salome" proudly acclaimed by the Fox Film Corporation as the world's greatest cinema production, will be the gala attraction at the Auditorium theater, starting this afternoon for two days only, with matinee daily.

Produced by William Fox at a cost of one million three hundred thousand dollars, "Salome" will go down in history as a masterpiece and stamp Theda Bara as the ideal artist for this type of characterization. Theda Bara needs no introduction to theater-goers of this city. When she appeared in "Cleopatra" it seemed as if she had attained the apex of spectacular dramatic achievement. What was there to do after that? William Fox answered, "There is Salome," and now she has just finished the role of the enchantress of old Judea.

A few years ago the grand opera production of "Salome" caused a sensation throughout America. So far-reaching was the impression it made that the fair, cruel daughter of Herod's wicked wife is now familiar to every man, woman and child. But the William Fox "Salome" while excluding objectionable features of the stage production, surpasses all other massive spectacles as the world-war surpasses the "get Villa."

"Salome" offers the glamour of the ancient-world with the pomp and splendor of the times of Herod, the king. It offers one of the most powerful and touching stories in ancient history. It offers the intrigues and plottings of a brilliant and decadent court. It offers in John the Baptist, the inspiring example of a brave, clean soul, unsullied by the lure of beauty, wealth and power; and yielding only to death when his head was demanded of a silver charger by the furious dancing woman "Salome," he had scorned.

"Salome" offers sublime stage pictures, gorgeous pageants; it offers the history, the art, the religion, the romance of the mightiest figures of all times. There are over 3000 in the cast. It took eight months to complete and was directed by J. Gordon Edwards, the genius who staged Miss Bara's other sensation "Cleopatra."

Seats are now selling for all performances. All seats reserved. Two performances daily. Seats now selling.

Real Cabaret Life in "Experience."

Cabaret life as seen in the larger cities, is vividly shown in the Golden Cabaret act on the Primrose Path of "Experience." In this act one finds seated at the various tables, dining and quietly chatting, such fascinating women as Fashion, Beauty, Excitement, Song, Slander, Deceit and Privilege, and with them are their escorts, typical men who frequent the cabaret, especially where dancing is indulged in. They are Sport, Style, Snob, Conceit, Blue Blood, Travel and Drive. To look at these gay and festive diners, one would think they were simply intent on eating and chatting.

But the moment the orchestra strikes up a one-step, all is changed. Knives and forks are hurriedly dropped, and the ladies and their escorts get up and dance. For this is the realm of cabaret, most where Pleasure is ever the reigning queen and in this scene the famous battle of the bottle and the bird is fought. Drive describes it best by saying: "Here is where the wine is always perfect and the birds just melt in your mouth," while ever-restless Excitement says: "Here is where we have an ever-glorious time."

The music in the Golden Cabaret in "Experience" is typical of the sort one finds in such places and Sport, one of the characters in the play, replying to a question by Song: "What shall I sing—something classic?" says: "Classic, nothing. Sing something we can move our feet to."

"Experience" comes to the Auditorium next Saturday night. Seats now selling.

"Three Mounted Men."

Would you trust your heart to a girl who made her living singing and dancing in a frontier drinking place? Do you think such a girl could be worthy of your friendship?

In "Three Mounted Men," the masterful Universal feature in which Harry Carey appears with Neva Gerber, a man does this every thing, with full confidence in her worthiness.

Lola wasn't a bad girl at heart and she became a professional dance hall girl only so she could support her mother and herself. Her brother, Buck Masters, was a convict serving a term in jail.

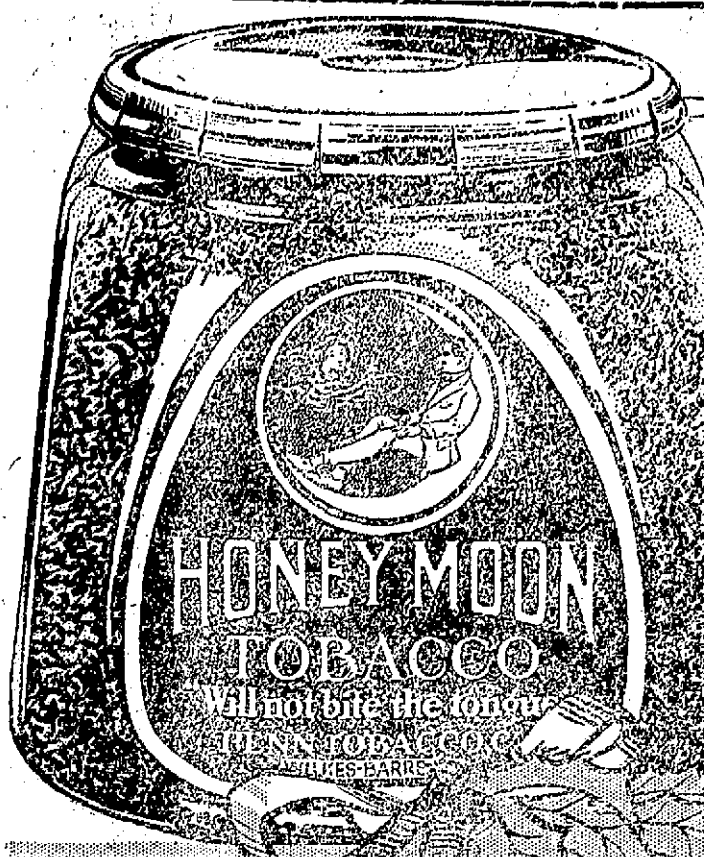

"Three Mounted Men" comes to the Auditorium theater on Sunday. A singer and several other features are promised.

EXPERIENCE
WILLIAM ELLIOT, F. RAY COMSTOCK and MORRIS GEST present
BY GEORGE V. HOBERT
THE MOST WONDERFUL PLAY IN AMERICA
Drama and Music, Spectacle and Laughter, Pathos, Pageantry
THE MOST POPULAR DRAMATIC SENSATION OF THE PRESENT DAY AND GENERATION — THE LINES OF WHICH EPI TOMIZE THE WISDOM OF THE AGES TO MOTHERS AND FATHERS!

Tradition says that experience is the champion school teacher of the world, yet how many people ever profit by the experience of others? Have you, mothers and fathers, ever given your children the benefit of your experience in life?

In a few days a play will be presented in Newark which should interest the citizens of this community. Thousands of fathers and mothers in this city who should send their children, their sons and daughters, all ignorant to the scenes and pitfalls of life, to see this great drama.

The play, "Experience," is the eternal, never-dying story of youth, his early struggles, his venture into the great world, to seek fame and fortune, his trials and temptations, his triumph over evil and wickedness, the everlasting influence of a woman's love, and the part of experience YOUR life may be about to share.

"Experience" teaches a great moral lesson. It has been influenced by characters of all denominations where it is shown. It has a wonderful effect upon the audience, because it points out to every man, woman and child the everlasting influence of a woman's love, and the part of experience YOUR life may be about to share.

Roll Refuses To Sell German Pocket Book and Knife Found On Battlefield.

An interesting letter has been received from Corporal Vincent J. Roll, of the 112th ammunition train, company B. In it he says: "Mother, I am sitting here in my dug-out this beautiful night of November 11, which all people will remember as the day the Huns threw up the white flag and made the world free once again. While the church bells in a little French village of Amby are ringing to remind the people that France is free.

"This morning about 2 o'clock I awoke and sat in front of the fire place in our dug-out listening to the roar of the big guns which were firing for their last night. I went back to sleep about 2:30 and at 6 o'clock when I got up they were still in full blast and continued that way until the very last minute at 11 a. m. At that time all reports of the guns stopped just like clock work and the church bells started to ring and are still ringing now at 7 p. m.

"This afternoon the road was just lined with French soldiers returning from the front and all were happy and were singing, which is very unusual for a Frenchman and they would yell 'Huns finish.' People back in the states cannot realize what it is like. Just think after fighting for four long years and so much of the country being torn up. I expect people back in the states are almost wild with joy and I sure would love to be back there to-night just to witness the scenes as I expect they will have parades and do a good bit of shooting like the Fourth of July.

"I expect we will be held here for a couple of months to help straighten some of the mess, but when we do come home we will all appreciate our good home we left.

"We have a torch for a light made out of a Frenchman's canteen. One of the fellow in my squad made it and we burn gasoline in it and it makes a fine light. I have a German's pocket book and a pocket knife. Some of the boys are trying to buy them from me but I will not part with them. I am going to close as I am going to write a letter home for one of the boys in my squad as he cannot write and the poor fellow has never received a letter since he has been over here so last night I told him I would write a letter for him and he just now returned from the village."

KIDNEYS WEAKENING?

LOOK OUT!

Kidney and bladder troubles don't disappear of themselves. They grow upon you, slowly but steadily, undermining your health with deadly certainty, until you fall a victim to incurable disease.

Stop your troubles while there is time. Don't wait until little pains become big aches. Don't trifle with disease. To avoid future suffering begin treatment with GOLD MEDAL Haaren Oil Capsules now. Take three or four every day until you feel that you are entirely free from pain.

This well-known preparation has been one of the national remedies of Holland for centuries. In 1686 the government of the Netherlands granted a special charter authorizing its preparation and sale.

The good housewife of Holland would almost as soon be without food as without her "Real Dutch Drops," as she quaintly calls GOLD MEDAL Haaren Oil Capsules. Their use restores strength and is responsible in a great measure for the sturdy, robust health of the Hollanders.

Do not delay. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with a box of GOLD MEDAL Haaren Oil Capsules. Take them as directed, and if you are not satisfied with results your druggist will gladly refund your money. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on the box and accept no other. In sealed boxes, three sizes.

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take
Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after-effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results.

BELLS RING ALL DAY, LETTER SAYS

Miss Louise Pieri received a letter from her brother George Pieri written November 12th, the day after the armistice was signed. He tells of the great joy among the French. Parts of the letter follow:

"It has rained every other day but that didn't stop the fighting, but it is over for sure now as the French say

GEORGE PIERI.

"La guerre finie"—the war is finished. That was about all you could get out of the French that we saw coming back from the front. There are about six towns close to where we are now quartered and you could hear the bells ringing all day. This was after 11 o'clock on Monday and they rang all day until dark. We are not near any large town but from the way they celebrate in these small towns they sure did have some time in the big cities. I would like to have seen some of the large cities in the states. What was doing?

"Now that it is over I don't know how soon we will get home but I think it will not be long. I hope not, because I haven't any desire to stay in this country. The states are good enough for me and as I heard a fellow say, if he ever got back to the states and looked at the statue of liberty on his way up the harbor, she would have to turn around if she wanted to see him again, and I don't blame him."

FRENCH ENJOY YANKEE CAMP

Are Fond of Watching
Base and Football Games of American Soldiers.

Herschel Evans wrote his mother Mrs. Mary A. Evans, North Fourth street, on October 25 saying that they were keeping the Germans on the run and that they, the Huns, were beginning to see that they were beaten.

The French people enjoy visiting the American camps and watching their sports, such as the base ball and foot ball games the Americans have introduced while "over there." The letter follows:

"Received your letter today that you wrote on October 4, and was sure glad to get it. It made good time over here. It only took 20 days, and that is sure making good time. I am now seated in the Y. M. C. A. writing. The pens are all in use so I will have to use a pencil. You cannot always get a pen to write with so you will have to excuse me for this time."

The weather over here at present is fairly good. It is rather cool, but the rain has stopped for awhile.

I was on duty at the hospital today and am rather tired tonight. I see by the paper that there are quite a few soldiers at Camp Sherman that are very sick with the disease called the Spanish Flu. Well, we have the same thing over here, but they are getting so now that they have a good cure for it. We are in war now and must expect such things. They had the same trouble in the civil war and revolutionary war. The epidemic was worse in those days than it is now. They now have more system and have better sanitation in every way.

The Americans are still keeping the Germans on the run, and will for some time, the way things look. The Huns are now beginning to see that they are beaten.

Suppose you will be a little surprised to learn that there are two Newark officers here that I know. They are Major Montgomery and Major Miller. I was also talking to a Newark fellow whom I had not seen since I left Sherman. I used to go to school with him. His name is Floyd Brown. I have also seen a few Akron fellows since I have been here.

The French people over here are tickled to death about the way the Americans are showing the Huns up. It is any wonder that they are. All they know is fight, fight, fight from the time they are able to talk until they are 50 years old.

The French people come out to our camp on Sunday and visit. The American soldiers gather around them quite a bit and chat with them. The soldiers pick up the French very quickly. The French think it is so fine the way the whole camp is arranged, and the food we get. Also what we have a base ball or foot ball game they gather in our camp. They have no sports like that over here.

About the only church they have over here is the Catholic church. I do not know whether they have any others at Paris or not, but I think they do. They also have a Masonic lodge over here. If an American soldier happens to be a Mason and a French Mason finds out he sure shows him a good time. He invites him to his home for a big feed, and probably will give him some French souvenirs.

The French are picking up quite a bit of American language since the Americans came over here, and are also becoming more accustomed to the American way. The French are very unsanitary in so many ways. They do not think anything of having a lice man more like in front of their house and they also have the cows and horses live in the next room from them."

Well mother as it is almost bedtime I will have to close.

RED BLOODED MEN WIN OUT

They Are Always on Top In Every Walk of Life

It is a fact that red blooded men and women are at the top in every walk of life. Men and women with the driving force of red blood, rich in iron and phosphates do things they get results.

Red blooded women are the heads of the happy and most contented homes. They have the will and the desire to be real companions and helpmates.

Leadership and happiness is only for the men and women who are willing to keep their blood and nerves strengthened and nourished with iron and phosphates.

A prominent doctor says, "It is a crime that so many men and women lack the rich, red blood and strong steady nerve to achieve their ambitions. It is all the more so because thin, watery blood is unnecessary, as rich, red blood and strong nerves are within the grasp of everyone."

Phosphated Iron makes pure blood by making new blood. It gives strength, brings color to the cheeks, increases the weight and appetite, drives away the blues and those sleepless nights, steadies and renews your nervous energy, makes you feel like a live one again.

There must be something to it. Everyone who tries it is loud in praise of Phosphated Iron and you have got to show people these days.

To insure physicians and their patients receiving the genuine Phosphated Iron, put up in capsules only. Do not allow dealers to give you pills or tablets. Insist on capsules.

HAIR COMING OUT MEANS DANDRUFF

Dandruff will save your hair and double its beauty at once.

Try this! Your hair gets soft, wavy, abundant and glossy at once.

Save your hair! Beauty! It is only a matter of using a little Dandruff. Dandruff is a head-ache, heavy, beautiful hair, soft, lustrous, wavy and free from dandruff. It is easy and inexpensive to have pretty, charming hair and lots of it. Just spend a few cents for a little bottle of Knowlton's Dandruff. Now all drug stores recommend it. Apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, firmness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and, as you will, you can not find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes, but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp. Dandruff is, we believe, the only cure for itching scalp, with dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Dandruff and begin to draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—beautiful in surprise awaits everyone who tries this Advice.

GRANVILLE

(Special to the Advocate.)

Granville, Dec. 5.—"Bryn Du," the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Jones, was thrown open Wednesday afternoon to the women of the club and the guests for one of its most delightful and notable programs—the "Overture and Incidental Music to Shakespeare's 'Midsummer Night's Dream.'" One hundred people were seated in the drawing room to which they had been welcomed by the hostess, Mrs. Jones, the president, Mrs. C. W. Chamberlain, and the social committee, Mrs. J. D. Thompson, Mrs. C. B. White outlined the program, giving tribute of appreciation to Mrs. J. S. Jones, hostess of the department of Public Speaking in Denison University, for his courtesy in reading the difficult scenes portrayed by the immortal bard. Following the brief explanatory talk on the nature of the play, Mrs. White took her place at the piano for eight hand "Overture," interpreted with skill by Mrs. Darrow, Miss Rosa Kerr, Miss Bessie Larkin and Mrs. White, after which the members followed the eloquent readings in proper sequence without further introduction. The "Scherzo" following Act I, where the elves come trooping in, was exquisitely interpreted by Mrs. Bessie Larkin, the first member of the club. Mrs. Kirtley Mather played the "Melodrama," accompanying the readings, and gave the beautiful "Nocturne" with rare charm. You Spot "Shakespeare" was sung by Mrs. C. W. Chamberlain, soprano, and chorists composed of Mrs. Ullman, Mrs. Cass, Miss Spencer, Mrs. Chamberlain, Mrs. Ashton, Mrs. Stuckney and Mrs. Thompson. The wedding march, after Act IV, was played by Mrs. Ashton, Mrs. Bridges, Misses Lora and Elva Wright. The "Dance of the Clowns," Act V, Scene I, was given by Mrs. Stuckney and Mrs. Soules on two pianos; the "March" after Act V, Scene II, was given by Mrs. Mather, who accompanied Mrs. E. P. Johnston and chorus in the final number, "Chorus of Elves."

"Through the House," the personnel of the chorus being Mrs. White, Miss Howland, Mrs. Stuckney, Mrs. Loveless, Miss La Fournier, Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Crawford. In addition to the formally expressed indebtedness of the club to Mrs. Johnston, the readers felt the spontaneous tribute of warm response to his interpretation, especially of the comedy. The whole program was of the highest order of excellence.

The reception into the club membership of Miss Rosa L. Kerr, for years one of the foremost figures in musical circles in the state, though her own modesty deprecates even the ordinary tribute of praise. She and Mrs. Bridges made their initial appearances on the club program yesterday.

The gentlemen present were Messrs. K. H. Eschman, M. E. Stuckney, Frank Robinson, E. H. Johnston, and two of the Chinese students, Messrs. Low and Wen.

A large and representative audience of music lovers assembled in the Baptist auditorium, Wednesday evening, and fully demonstrated the success of the festival music course by its appreciation of the opening attraction—a song recital by Oscar Seagle, baritone, and Barbara Maurel, soprano. Seagle, who possesses a voice of wonderful range, richness and power, and a technical ability that showed him master of his art, was somewhat slow in warming the audience to the degree of enthusiasm which amounted to a full-throated shout of approval and heart warming response, and during the remainder of the program the audience was not. It is as the interpreter of the negro spiritual that Mr. Seagle is supreme, singing as he does into the romance and passion of his native Southland. But, as he informed his hearers, he had placed the stamp of approval of London and Paris upon them, for he ventured to present these folk songs on an American program. Miss Maurel was in instant touch with the audience, who delighted with the charm of her youthful presence, her beautiful voice of a mezzo-soprano, with exquisite high tones and the consummate art of her interpretations, rendered her the tribute of frequent recalls. The pianist, not named on the program, was invited by Mr. Seagle to respond to one of the best vocal encores. The program presented the names of the festival trustees: President C. W. Chamberlain, J. C. Campbell, A. H. Healey, James A. Huston, C. B. White, the officers, President, M. E. Stuckney, vice president, Mrs. J. S. Jones, secretary, Mrs. Burton Cass, treasurer, Mrs. C. B. White, business, Prof. F. G. Detweiler, membership, Mrs. Theodore Johnson; program, Mrs. K. H. Johnston. The patrons this year are Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Deming, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Eschman, Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Eschman, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Healey, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Stuckney, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Ray, Frank S. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Slack, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Tanner, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. White, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Cass.

Miss Geneva Lowe of Newark, who was a guest of the music club Wednesday afternoon, remained for dinner and Mrs. E. E. Haskins at the Buxton House.

Prof. and Mrs. Theodore Johnson will leave this evening for Chicago, where they expect to stay for several days.

Mrs. David Bewidge is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ferguson, during the illness of her mother.

Mrs. J. M. Lockhart has returned home from a visit to her parents in West Lafayette, where she attended her daughter, Miss Helen, through an attack of influenza.

It is said that the new cases of influenza in the college are among the Scheridon college girls who went home for Thanksgiving. Traveling seems to be a fruitful source of infection.

Thirty-five pupils were absent yesterday from the public schools and this morning the ban was clapped on.

Willis Johnson, aged 17, who was sent to the industrial school at Lancaster from this city on August 12, and who took French leave the latter part of October, was picked up in this city yesterday by Probation Officer John Dwyer and will be returned to the institution this afternoon, a parole officer coming for him. The lad after leaving the school went to Dayton where he remained some time and then went to Columbus, coming from the latter city. It is said that several boys had been secured for the lad but that he would not remain long at a time until he would get into mischief and his father stated that he had become unmanageable.

"No, mine don't wear out—not for a long time. I'll tell you how I do it. A silk manufacturer I know told me. I wash them every time I wear them—and with Lux!"

"Yes, really, it's the only way. Perspiration rots silk, so it should be washed right out. And any kind of soap that requires any rubbing at all just ruins silk stockings. Lux dissolves the dirt, and it actually falls out into the sudsy water, with just a few swishings up and down, and a few squeezings to get the suds through every part of the silk."

"And most wonderful of all, my white stockings stay white! It's free alkali in soap that makes silk turn yellow—together with little bits of cake soap that don't get rinsed out. Lux hasn't any free alkali, and the thin flakes melt the minute they touch the water."

After dozens of washings, my stockings are as white as when I bought them!"

Lux will not harm anything that pure water alone will not injure. Order a package today from your grocer, druggist or department store. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

How to wash silk stockings

Whisk a handful of Lux into a thick lather in very hot water. Add cold water till lukewarm. Dip your stockings through the foamy lather many times—work them about in the suds—do not rub. Rinse in three waters the same temperature as the water in which you washed them. Squeeze the water out—do not wring. When nearly dry, press with a warm iron—never a hot one.

LUX For all fine laundering.

Gilbert Erector Sets

"The Toy Like Structural Steel"

Hello, boys! The big reason why Erector is the choice of thousands of boys is because it is genuine. You can build toy steel bridges, sky scrapers, battleships, etc., with Erector Sets, for they never lose interest, as they are exactly like the real thing. Erector girders have interlocking edges, so you can build with square, four-sided columns instead of flat strips, and your models are as strong as a horse.
